ORGANIZATIONAL HISTORY

Catalogs have been published annually since 1895 throughout the history of the University. The catalogs provide a history of the academic life of the institution and include information regarding the administration and faculty, offices and services, course offerings and degree requirements. They are a published product of the Office of the Registrar.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Collection contains four main series: undergraduate catalogs, graduate & continuing education catalogs, summer course catalogs and evening undergraduate catalogs. Please note that for many years, the graduate, summer and evening courses are all contained within the undergraduate catalog. The catalogs are organized chronologically.
