ORGANIZATIONAL HISTORY

In 1930, the State Normal School was authorized to offer a bachelor's degree in practical arts, and in 1932, when it became the State Teachers College at Fitchburg, four-year degrees were offered in all areas of education. After the change, the school saw increased growth in enrollment and in the physical campus.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection contains 30 candid photographs depicting student life at Fitchburg State Teachers College in the 1930's. Many of the individuals and events in the images are identified. The collection is organized into one folder.
