ORGANIZATIONAL HISTORY

The Alumni Association began in 1898 with the first graduating class of the Fitchburg Normal School and has remained active throughout the history of the institution as the Fitchburg Normal School (1894-1932), State Teachers College at Fitchburg (1932-1965), Fitchburg State College (1965-2010) and Fitchburg State University (2010- ). In addition to organizing alumni reunions and tracking alumni, the Alumni Association is responsible for a number of scholarships and awards, career assistance and volunteer opportunities.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection preserves a slide presentation, used during the 1991 and 1992 Alumni Banquets, and related materials. Included are presentation notes, slides, and audio soundtracks.
COLLECTION INVENTORY

SERIES 1: Presentation notes and floppy disks, 1991-1992
This series contains notes about the presentation content and instructions. There are also two floppy disks labeled “Photo-slide catalogs. Formatted” and “Formatted Zenith.”

SERIES 2: Audiocassettes, 1991-1992
This series contains two audiocassettes with a selection of songs from popular culture that date from 1920s to the 1980s. Songs do not play in full, just fragments about a minute long that fade into the next song fragment. Song fragments play in chronological order. Music is located at the beginning of each tape side. The same group of songs plays through once or twice on each side. Songs differ between tapes, but not tape sides.
